

DONALD A. McMURRAY, Ph.D.
LICENSED PSYCHOLOGIST
PY 4631

1250 S. Tamiami Trail, Suite 201
Sarasota, FL 34236
941.363.0878 Phone
941.363.0527 Fax
mental-edge@comcast.net e-mail

PRIMARY PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

2008 to Present Program Director
Comprehensive MedPsych Systems
Sarasota, FL

1975 to 2008 Psychologist, Private Practice
Keene, NH; Columbia, MD; Cumberland, MD; New Castle, PA;
Pittsburgh, PA; Sarasota, FL

Services include:

- Psychological evaluations for the judicial system, community mental health system, school system, bureau of disability determination, Worker's Compensation, drug & alcohol system, vocational rehabilitation, and private patients. Prepared clinical evaluations, custody evaluations, educational evaluations, and forensic evaluations for children, adolescents and adults.
- Expert witness for the judicial system in a variety of forensic cases.
- Individual, couple, family, group psychotherapy and hypnotherapy with mental health and chemical dependency clients. Serving children, adolescents, and adults.
- Associate Professor, Adjunct at Frostburg State University, Westminster College, and the University of South Florida. Taught courses in: Introduction to Psychology, Personality Theory, Group Therapy, Family and Marital Therapy, Systems Theory, Group Leadership Skills, Developmental Psychology, and Adolescent Psychology & Psychotherapy.
- Supervised bachelor and master level students and clinicians in assessment, psychological evaluation and clinical work.
- Independent practitioner privileges at Sarasota Memorial Hospital.
- Psychoanalytically trained, augmented with systems, family, and cognitive approaches.

1973 to
1997 Management Consultant; Behavioral Health Care
Pittsburgh, PA; Keene, NH; Cumberland, MD; New Castle, PA;
Washington, DC; Sarasota, FL

Services included:

- Systems design and program implementation, strategic planning, managed care, utilization management, management/board training, and outcome measures.
- Local, regional, state and national seminars on: managed care, cost finding and rate setting, outcome measures, solution-oriented therapy, clinical productivity, board leadership training, service excellence, performance standards, utilization management, solution oriented therapy, group psychotherapy, and single point of entry systems, clinical systems design in a managed care environment.

1999 to
2008 Chief Executive Officer
Suncoast Psychometrics, Inc.
Sarasota, FL

Service included:

- Psychological evaluations and assessments, clinical consultation, in-service training, and expert witness services with children, adolescents, and adults.

Administrative responsibilities included:

- Responsible for operations, fiscal and clinical services.

Clinical responsibilities included:

- Clinical assessments and psychological evaluations for the Judicial System, Department of Children and Family Services, Developmental Services, the Department of Corrections in Southwest Florida, Lutheran Services, and Family Preservation Services.
- Supervision of doctoral and master level clinical staff in their psychological evaluation functions.
- Expert witness assessments (competency and sanity), written reports, and court testimony for the Judicial System.
- In-service training for the Department of Children and Families.
- Clinical consultation with the Department of Children & Families.

1997 to
1999 Clinical Psychologist
Comprehensive MedPsych Systems
Sarasota, FL

Responsibilities included:

- Provided psychological behavioral medicine services to medical inpatients in the hospital, including
 - o Cardiac/open heart surgery patients
 - o Med-surgical patients
 - o Critical Care patients

1995 to
1997 Vice President Clinical Resources and Psychologist
Coastal Recovery Centers, Inc.
Sarasota, FL

Responsibilities included:

- Psychological evaluations for judicial system, HRS/DCF, Department of Corrections, and clinical programs for children, adolescents, and adults.
- In-service training.
- Assessed and redesigned clinical programs, patient pathways, management information system, and coordinated fiscal resources with clinical services delivery.
- Developed a manage-care behavioral health access system.

1983 to
1992 Chief Executive Officer
Human Service Center, Inc.
New Castle, PA

Administrative responsibilities included:

- Responsible for operations, fiscal, clinical systems, reporting to a Board of Directors.
- Planned and implemented the reorganization of the center to function in a managed care environment, creating a single point of entry, utilization management, outcome management, and utilization review systems.
- Restructured the corporation, creating a parent corporation and a private practice corporation, with corresponding boards.

Clinical responsibilities included:

- Chair of clinical assessment and evaluation team.
- Instruction and supervision of group psychotherapy services.

1978 to
1983 Chief Executive Officer
Community Counseling Center, Inc.
Cumberland, MD

Administrative responsibilities included:

- Responsible for operations, fiscal and clinical systems, reporting to a Board of Directors.

Clinical responsibilities included:

- Individual, couple, family, group psychotherapy and hypnotherapy to children, adolescents, and adults with mental health and chemical dependency problems.

- Clinical assessments and psychological evaluations for judicial systems, school system, chemical dependency program, and consumers.
- Supervising master level psychology interns in clinical and psychological evaluation functions.
- Supervising clinical staff in individual, couple, family, group therapy, as well as clinical assessments and psychological evaluations.
- Providing continuous case conferences for the regional state mental hospital.

1977 to
1978

Associate Dean of Administration and Finance, Associate Professor Antioch University
Columbia, MD

Administrative responsibilities included:

- Business office and operations staff. Monitored systems design, budget preparation, purchases, personnel and operations policies development, as well as negotiation and maintenance of contracts and leases.

Faculty responsibilities included:

- Teaching courses in psychology, management, and systems theory.

1976 to
1977

Chair: Professional Psychology Department, Associate Professor
Antioch University, New England Graduate School
Keene, NH

Administrative responsibilities included:

- Administration of three master level psychology programs, development of curriculum, hiring/supervision of faculty, preparation of budgets, began work on development of doctoral program.

Clinical/faculty responsibilities included:

- Supervising supervisors of clinical practice of interns, students' clinical work including individual, couple, family, group, and psychological evaluations.
- Teaching courses in psychoanalytic theory and therapy, systems theory, decision making theory, program development, consultation skills, group psychotherapy, clinical assessment and evaluation, personality theory, abnormal psychology, adolescent development and therapy, counseling theory and practice, family therapy.

1975 to
1976

Coordinator Counseling Psychology Program,
Assistant Professor
Antioch University, New England Graduate School
Keene, NH

Administrative responsibilities included:

- Administration of the counseling psychology program. Assisted in the development of curriculum, internship sites, recruiting and orienting faculty, selection of students, participating on various committees, and making budget recommendations.

Clinical/faculty responsibilities included:

- Supervising student internship activities; individual, couple, family, and group assessments.
- Teaching courses in psychoanalytic theory and therapy, systems theory, decision making theory, program development, consultation skills, group psychotherapy, clinical assessment and evaluation, personality theory, abnormal psychology, adolescent development and therapy, counseling theory and practice, family therapy.

1973 to
1975

Psychologist
Catholic Charities of Pittsburgh
Pittsburgh, PA

Clinical responsibilities included:

- Providing supervised psychotherapy services to individuals, couples, groups, and families working primarily with adolescents and adults with mental disorders or chemical dependency.
- Clinical assessments/intakes.

EDUCATION:

1975	Ph.D.	Counseling Psychology Emphasis: Counseling Psychology/Management Systems & Clinical Consultation University of Pittsburgh Pittsburgh, PA
1972	MA	Counseling Emphasis: Counseling Psychology University of South Florida Tampa, FL
1968	BS	Political Science Rollins College Winter Park, FL

LICENSED:

1991 Licensed Psychologist - Florida #PY 4631 (active)
1983 Licensed Psychologist - Pennsylvania #PS 004223 L (inactive)
1979 Licensed Psychologist - Maryland #315 (inactive)

POST DOCTORAL TRAINING/INTERNSHIPS:

1979 to 1981 Family Therapy Institute of Washington, D.C.
(Jay Haley Institute: 2 year program)
Rockville, MD

1979, 1981, 1985, 1987, and 1990 American Society of Clinical Hypnosis
Beginning, Intermediate, and Advanced Training.

10/03 Florida Forensic Examiner Training
Randy Otto, Ph.D, Tampa, FL

McMURRAY, DONALD A.
Page 7

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS:

American Psychological Association

PRIOR MEMBERSHIPS:

Mental Health Association of MD
Mental Health Association of Allegheny County
State Mental Health Advisory Council, MD
Allegheny Psychological Association
New Hampshire Psychological Association
Pittsburgh Psychoanalytic Institute
Family Therapy Institute of Pittsburgh
Pennsylvania Association of MH/MR Providers
American Group Psychotherapy Association
Tri-State Group Psychotherapy Society
American Society of Clinical Hypnosis

BOARD POSITIONS:

National Council of Community Mental Health Centers
Mental Health Corporation of America (Enterprise)

Pennsylvania Association of MH/MR Providers
Tri-State Group Psychotherapy
State Mental Health Advisory Council
Mental Health Association of Maryland
American Heart Association
Rotary Club of Gulf Gate
Sleep Disorders Center: Sarasota Memorial Hospital - Advisory Board